The St. Joseph's Family Medical Centre was the first community-based Family Medical Centre in Canada. It was founded in 1969 as a partnership with the University of Western Ontario, St. Joseph's Hospital, and the College of Family Physicians of Canada. The facility at 346 Platt's Lane has been in operation since 1985. The St. Joseph's Family Medical and Dental Centre provides comprehensive health care with a patient-centered focus. Family medicine is delivered through active health promotion, ongoing supportive care and the active treatment of disease. We have expanded our primary care support to include a trauma-informed care approach to individuals with complex physical and emotional needs, supporting their journey to healing and recovery.

The Family Medical and Dental Centre continues to be a partnership between St. Joseph's Health Care London and the University of Western Ontario Schulich School of Medicine and Dentistry. The centre supports a quality undergraduate and post-graduate education program, advancing medical knowledge through clinic research.

The Family and Medical Centre is seeking a dedicated and skilled Registered Practical Nurse to join our team. The RPN will play an integral role in the interdisciplinary care team, delivering compassionate, trauma informed nursing support to patients. Your expertise and empathy will help foster a safe and supportive environment for patients with diverse and often complex medical and emotional challenges. This position will focus on providing assessment, screening, healthy lifestyle support, education and chronic disease management from a trauma-informed lens with a goal of improving health outcomes.
