

Registered Nurse, Operational Stress Injury Clinic - 1 position	Posting #: 56957
Operational Stress Injury Clinic	Posting Date: August 13, 2026
Parkwood Institute Main - London, ON	Submission Deadline: August 19, 2026
Regular Part Time	Stacy Kearns, Human Resources
ONA	Salary Range: $41.15 - $58.98 /hour

The Operational Stress Injury Clinic is part of the Veterans Care Program and a larger network of clinics across Canada and is designed to provide ambulatory services to veterans, members of the Canadian Forces and the RCMP experiencing psychological difficulties as a result of their service. St. Joseph's Operational Stress Injury Clinic is responsible for service provision across a geographic region including Southwestern Ontario, the Greater Toronto area and portions of Central Ontario. The successful candidate will work primarily in London; however, some travel to other satellite locations may be required.

You will provide quality care and work within a comprehensive interdisciplinary team. Knowledge in the areas of assessment and treatment of mental, emotional and behavioural disorders and conditions for those who are referred to the clinic as a result of traumatic stress injuries is essential. A good understanding of military culture would be beneficial. An operational stress injury can impact the entire family; therefore, familiarity and comfort in working with spouses, children, and adolescents, as well as other family members is important.

The role necessitates effective communication and collaboration with Veterans Affairs Canada, Department of National Defense, family physicians, other community partners as well as Operational Stress Injury Support [OSISS] partners.
